PREPARE FOR THE BOWLING SEASON

Elks Are Planning For Another Big Season, While Other Leagues Will be in the Running Again This Winter.

Much activity has been shown in local bowling circles in the past few days, not by the pin men themselves but the executive end of the game. Every indication points to one of the greatest seasons in local history as a great deal of enthusiasm is shown in every club in the city where the sport is fostered.

All arrangements for the beginning of the season are not yet completed with the exception of the Studebaker club, where everything is in readiness for the boys to attack the pins next Monday. By reason of adding another alley to its spacious quarters the sport should thrive even more than in the past.

At the C. A. club much activity has been shown by the bowling committee although no definite plans have been announced for the season as yet. The C. A. club was scheduled for an elimination tournament last year and this year another plan of contest is under consideration and the committee in charge hope to announce their plans within a few days. It is hoped to open the alleys within a week.

Walthers League is Active. The Walthers league, with headquarters at the Lutheran school, are looking forward to a great season. This organization is the latest to enter the local bowling field and while they obtained a late start they carried their schedule well along into the summer with an exciting finish in its league race. By reason of its successful season interest in the game runs high and at present the men in charge fear they cannot accommodate all the players with places on their respective teams.

No definite plans have as yet been formulated at the Indiana club. This organization contributes considerably to the alley game and have exciting times in the play. No fear of the sport being dormant need be anticipated and when the season gets under full swing the Indiana club will be found with as many bowlers and others on the drives as they can accommodate.

FORFEITED GAME GOES TO PHILADELPHIA TEAM

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Reversing the decision of Umpire Brennan, Pres. Thomas J. Lynch of the National league, announced Tuesday afternoon that the game of Saturday, Aug. 30, between the New York and Philadelphia clubs will count as a victory for the Philadelphia team.

Umpire Brennan awarded the contest to the Giants by a 9 to 0 score when the Philadelphia management was unable to clear a section of the bleachers back of center field, claiming that the moving spectators were a handicap to the New York batters.

The decision nearly precipitated a riot and the members of the New York club were afforded police protection on their way to the railroad station.

SIX HEATS FAIL TO DECIDE RACE

The 2:09 Trot at Hartford Brings Out Some Classy Sport and Deciding Heat Will be Run Today.

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 2.

The second day's racing at Charter Oak park by the grand circuit horses was featured by the excellent performance of Frank Bogash, Jr., and a hard fought race in the 2:09 trot, which had to go unfinished after six heats. Murphy put Frank Bogash, Jr., through in the Nutmeg stake after the gelding dropped the first heat to Leata J., it being a fight all the way between the mare and the gelding. The 2:09 trot produced a new 2:10 trotter in James W., who captured the first heat, and also was marked by reducing the record of Ruth McGregor to 2:07 1-2, furnishing the best of the day's excitement. Holyrood Ben was an easy winner in the juvenile.

James W. surprised the onlookers when he turned in a winner of the first heat of the 2:09 trot and placed himself among the season's list of 2:10 trotters, but after that he showed little until the sixth heat. Murphy found that Ruth McGregor had a bit the best of the field in the second and third heats, coming through at will in the stretch and looked like a sure winner, but at a break at the start of the fourth heat left the chestnut mare out of it and Pan Patch finished first. Snow's black mare repeated her victory in the fifth heat but in the sixth Cox again surprised the stands by taking issue with Ruth McGregor and capturing the heat and secured the race to go over until Tuesday to be finished.

Bonnie Sator made the going in both heats of the juvenile 2:30 trot for it and Pan Patch finished first. Snow's black mare repeated her victory in the fifth heat but in the sixth Cox again surprised the stands by taking issue with Ruth McGregor and capturing the heat and secured the race to go over until Tuesday to be finished.
